Supplies:

Foam Mounting Tape ¼"
Glossy Accents
Heat Resistant Acetate
Mini Ink Blending Tool
White Detail Embossing Powder

Nighttime Sky Steps:

1. Cut teal card stock to 4 ¼" x 11" and create a top-fold card.
2. Die cut panel from navy card stock; dab navy ink on upper one third of panel, spritz with water to create spots, and let dry. Die cut stars.
3. Die cut panel from white card stock.
4. Blend yellow and aqua inks as shown in photo. (Photo 2)
5. Adhere to card base and adhere navy panel over it.
6. Die cut light brown panel with rectangle die and stitched edge die; stamp panel with background stamp using light brown ink.
7. Stamp sentiment in brown and adhere to navy panel with foam tape.
8. Stamp, color, and die cut images. Adhere to card.

Daytime Sky Steps:

1. Cut white card stock to 4 1/4" x 11" and create a top-fold card. Die cut white panel.
2. Die cut cloud edge from acetate to create mask. Position mask near middle of panel and tape down. Blend tan and aqua inks as shown to create sky. (Photo 2)
3. Place stencil over area and ink with same inks as step 3. (Photo 3)
4. Move cloud edge mask and sponge along edge with aqua ink. Repeat this process until the lower half is covered. (Photo 4)
5. Stamp rocket image on panel and stencil tiny stars with dark orange, orange, and red inks. Stamp rocket image again on an other piece of white card stock, color, and die cut.
6. Adhere die cut rocket with foam tape over previously stamped image; add glossy accents to rocket window.
7. Cut blue card stock to 4 1/8" x 5 3/8". Layer focal panel, and then adhere to card base.
8. Stamp and emboss sentiment on strip of red card stock and adhere to card with foam tape.

Designer Tips:

- Set aside the stars cut in the Nighttime Sky card to use as confetti on a future project.
- When you use acetate to create a mask for inking, you can simply wipe off the ink and save it for a future project!

Supplies:

2 1/2" x 8" Acrylic Stamp Block
Foam Mounting Tape 1/4"
Mini Misters – 3 Pack
Sparkling Clear Mix
Wink of Stella Brush - Clear

Steps:

1. Cut white card stock to 4 1/4" x 11" and create a top-fold card.
2. Cut watercolor paper panel to 4 1/8" x 5 3/8"
3. Press red ink pad on acrylic block and spritz with water.
4. Press acrylic block into watercolor paper panel starting at the top. Move block around in a small area until ink covers the desired area.
5. Repeat steps 3 and 4 for each color of ink, cleaning acrylic block in between each color. Let dry.
6. Die cut five clouds using white card stock, adhere clouds to watercolor panel using foam tape for two; affix sequins.
7. Die cut "Rainbows" from black card stock and adhere; stamp sentiment above in black.
8. Apply glitter to background with Wink of Stella Brush.

Designer Tips:

- Use a couple of different acrylic blocks when doing the technique to save the time it would take to clean in between each application.
- A Mini Mister is a great way to control the amount of water that you add to the ink on the acrylic block.

Foam Mounting Tape ¼"

Single Red Heart Card Steps:

1. Cut white card stock to 4 ¼" x 11" and create a top-fold card.
2. Die cut rectangle from white card stock.
3. Die cut slightly off center circle from panel, and adhere to card base.
4. Die cut another circle from gray card stock and adhere inside circle created in panel.
5. Die cut heart from red card stock and adhere with foam tape.
6. Die cut and stamp flowers from aqua card stock; adhere with foam tape.
7. Die cut heart arrow from gold card stock and adhere with foam tape
8. Stamp sentiment and ink splatters.

Multi Heart Card Steps:

1. Cut white card stock to 4 ¼" x 11" and create a top-fold card.
2. Die cut rectangle frame; set aside frame and stamp background pattern on inner panel.
3. Adhere frame to card base with foam tape and then adhere inner panel to card base.
4. Use circle cut in Single Red Heart Card and die cut peek-a-boo shapes with multi hearts.
5. Die cut red circle and adhere to back of white circle.
6. Die cut multi hearts from pink card stocks and adhere in white circle.
7. Stamp sentiment and ink splatters on circle and adhere to card base with foam tape.

Designer Tips:

- Keisha used both the negative and positive from her die-cut panel to use as accents on two different cards.
- Add contrast to an inset panel by stamping a subtle pattern in a light, neutral tone.
- When die cutting produces multiple pieces that you won't be using on your current project, tuck them away in a container to use on another project as confetti or decorative accents.

Supplies:

Glossy Accents

Steps:

1. Cut gray card stock to 8 1/2" x 5 1/2" and create a top-fold card.
2. Die cut light blue patterned paper with stitched rectangle die. Die cut two shades of green card stock with stitched rectangle die, and then die cut grass from both edges of dark green card stock and stitched snow drifts from one edge of the light green piece.
3. Stamp three pieces of grass with green ink using patterned background stamps to create the look of texture in the grass.
4. Stamp images with black ink on white card stock, die cut, and color images with markers; create texture on pig by adding dots with dark pink marker. (Photo 2)
5. Apply glossy accents to tires and tractor grill for texture.
6. Die cut fence from two shades of brown card stock, adhere together, and stamp with wood background using tan ink to add texture.
7. Adhere finished pieces to blue piece to complete the scene; adhere panel to the card base.

Designer Tips:

- Soft patterned papers add interest with ease and make for a perfect background for your stamped scenes.
- Add realistic shine to your projects with glossy accents in just the right spots.

Supplies:

Foam Mounting Tape 1/4"
Gesso
Ranger Texture Paste
Palette Knife

Steps:

1. Cut white card stock to 4 1/4" x 11" and create a top-fold card.
2. Cut patterned paper to 3 3/4" x 5", and brush lightly with gesso. (Photo 2)
3. Stamp background and patterns with tan ink, not entirely covering paper. (Photo 3)
4. Apply texture paste through stencil concentrating on the upper left corner; let dry. Note: To speed up drying time, carefully use heat tool. (Photo 4)
5. Stamp patterns with black ink, distress edges, and lightly sponge with tan ink. (Photo 5)
6. Lightly mark card base through die window with pencil; stamp sentiment in black, and adhere to base with foam tape.
7. Die cut and stamp flowers; die cut leaves from green.
8. Adhere flowers and leaves to card front.

Designer Tips:

- Dye ink works best for this technique because the wet embossing paste will absorb some of the ink giving it a vintage look.
- Be sure to erase your light pencil marks once you've stamped your sentiment.
