Steps:

1. Cut pink card stock to 4 1/4" x 8 1/2" and create a top-fold card. Cut two white card stock panels to 4" x 4". Die cut a circle from the center of one of the panels.
2. Die cut and assemble three felt roses. Die cut foliage from green felt.
3. Stack the white squares and lightly trace the circle onto the intact panel with a pencil. Using a variety of flower and dot images, stamp a wreath shape around the pencil circle. Adhere felt leaves as desired. Position the previously used circle die over the sketched line and die cut.
4. Using the square negative as a guide, adhere the circle to the center of the card front. Stamp the sentiment using black ink.
5. Attach the white square to the card front using dimensional adhesive.
6. Adhere the felt flowers using a strong liquid adhesive. Adhere clear gems as desired.

Design tips:

- Temporary place the felt roses without adhesive to determine placement of the leaves before adhering.
- To achieve a balanced look, position similarly-sized elements opposite each other around the wreath.
